Casa Medina Restaurant commissioned a local artist to paint a mural in support of local law enforcement, first responders, and health care workers. The owner, Adan Medina, said, "I believe all law enforcement, first responders and health care workers are special people. They are my heroes. Including my daughter, Liliana, who is a paramedic".

Every day uniformed law enforcement officers are offered a discount on meals (excluding alcohol beverages). The Wednesday before Thanksgiving (11/25/2020), all uniformed law enforcement officers will be offered a free meal. Casa Medina is a family-owned and operated Mexican food restaurant.
